On your way to the Acropolis you will see the PANATHENAIC STADIUM (where the first Olympic Games of the modern era were held in 1896) and the Athens of the 2nd century A.D., the TEMPLE OF OLYMPIAN ZEUS and the ADRIAN'S ARCH. On the ACROPOLIS you will visit the museum and the architectural masterpieces of the Golden Age of Athens: the PROPYLAEA, the temple of ATHENA NIKE, the ERECHTEION and finally, the "harmony between matter and spirit", the monument that "puts order in the mind", the PARTHENON. Time at leisure for shopping and strolling through the typical white-washed narrow streets of the picturesque town. In the evening sailing to Kusadasi. Dinner and overnight on board.

Day 4:

Breakfast on board. Early morning arrival in Kusadasi. This seaside resort has undergone vigorous development in recent years and is an excellent place to shop for Turkish goods. The optional tour to nearby Ephesus is not to be missed, for here the history truly comes to life. Walking towards the ancient harbor, down a marble road rutted by the wheels of countless chariots, you pass such architectural masterpieces as the Magnesian Gate and the Library of Celsus before arriving at the great amphitheater where Saint Paul was arrested and cast out of the city. Later in the morning sailing to Patmos. Lunch on board.

The archeological museum in Heraklion displays many of the treasures found during the excavations. In the late morning sailing to Santorini. Lunch on board. In the afternoon arrival in Santorini. This island is perhaps the most breathtaking of all the Greek islands. The town of Fira is accessible by donkeys or by cable car. Free time or optional excursion to Akrotiri located on the Southern point of the island. The excavation site has been roofed over to fashion a unique museum.
